

Particulars pertaining to State Council of Educational Research and Training (SCERT) Nagaland, under Right to Information (RTI) Act, 2005 w.e.f. 1st April, 2017 – 31st March, 2018.

1. The particulars of its organization, functions and duties:

The State Council of Educational Research and Training (SCERT), which is the Academic Authority in the state is the academic wing of the Department of Education. It is an all-purpose institute concerned with diversified educational activities and aims at bringing about a coordinated strategy for all-round educational development in the state especially in the school sector. The SCERT as an organization aims at bringing about desirable changes in attitudes and behavior in all concerned with education and at inculcating an ideal value system in the learner and the teachers so that the class-room transaction takes place in a conducive climate and the learner consequently becomes a useful component of the wider society. The SCERT thus is supposed to perform - (i). Leadership role (ii). Advisory Role (iii). Extension Role

The SCERT was established in 1979 vide Government of Nagaland Notification No.EDS (SCERT) 2/78 dated 15-12-79. In the initial period, the Principal, Nagaland College of Teacher Education, Kohima was nominated as the Ex-Officio Director of the SCERT. For administrative convenience all administrative and financial matters like drawing up schemes, allotment of fund formation of policy decision etc lay with the Director of Education. With the bifurcation of the Directorate of Education into Directorate of Higher and Technical Education and the Directorate of School and Physical Education, the SCERT was put under the Directorate of School and Physical Education.

In a communication to the Secretary (Education), Government of Nagaland, the Government of India advised that all SCERTs in the states should be headed by a Director in the status of the Director of Education in terms of scale of pay, administrative and financial powers to ensure prompt action both in administrative and financial functional matters. At the initial step, the Government of Nagaland brought the SCERT under the direct control of the Education Department. The Secretary (Education) was declared as the Ex-Officio Director, vide Notification No.EDS/7/3/dated, 27-04-83. Under this arrangement, all academic and administrative functions were disposed of by the Secretary (Education) in the capacity of Ex-Officio Director of the SCERT.

In the light of the suggestion from the Government of India and for a proper coordination of education from Pre-school stage to Elementary stage, the SCERT was made a full-fledged Directorate vide Government Notification No. EDS/HTE/17-32/86/ dated 18-12-86.

Functions:

As the academic wing of the Department of Education, the SCERT deals with academic aspects of the different levels of Pre-primary, Primary, Elementary Secondary and other academic related activities in the schools. The main functions of SCERT are:-
